

FUMC LIBRARY

GUIDELINES FOR DONATIONS

The Library Committee welcomes donations to the library. The following guidelines will be used in the decision for accepting donations; these same guidelines are used by the Committee when purchasing new materials.

Guidelines for donations:

Copyright/publication date within the past 10 years or the book is a classic;

Content is relevant for topics that need current information [i.e. health topics, social concerns issues];

Content supports the theology of the United Methodist Church;

Be in good condition and not excessively marked or highlighted;

Provides resource and reference information for individuals and group leaders.

MISSION: The library provides resources for the Christian education of the members of FUMC. Books and other materials support and enrich the Sunday School Curriculum, small group studies, and individual study and provides resources for teachers and leaders.
